Board’s Focus Group on Governance

Presentation / Discussion Agenda
July 2008
Overview

Goals today:
1. Identify and discuss key aspects of OUS’ governance structure
2. Identify and discuss issues for further consideration and potential change

A View of OUS Governance Structure:
1. Diagram overview
2. Commentary and discussion
3. Issues of delegation

Board Meetings and Operations:
1. Required schedule:
   a) By statute – every three months
   b) By bylaws – four per year
2. Optimum schedule and structure
3. Use of committees
   ✓ Delegation
4. Terms of directors
Budgets and Finance:
1. Block grant funding
2. DAS accounting requirements
3. Tuition control

OUS Central Office Staffing:
1. Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs
2. Other

Next Steps:
1. Discussion of possible recommendations for change:
   - Legislative
   - OUS and Board governance documents
A View of the OUS Governance Structure

The Board

Board-to-Chancellor:
- Board has broad general powers of governance over OUS, its properties and other assets, personnel system, tuition, and sets all policies for its operations and institutional instruction and governance
  - ORS 351.010; 351.0060; 351.070; 351.087
- Board appoints Chancellor as “CEO” of OUS (and assistants) and sets compensation
  - ORS 351.075
- Chancellor exercises administrative authority over institutions, departments, and activities per Board policy.
  - ORS 351.085

Chancellor

Chancellor to Presidents:
- Chancellor exercises administrative authority over institutions, departments, and activities per Board policy.
- Chancellor maintains centralized service program for all institutions, prepares budgets, instructs presidents as necessary to carry out Board directives, etc.
  - ORS 351.085

Board-to-Presidents:
- Board “may” appoint presidents (and faculty) and set compensation and tenure
- Board “may” set admissions qualifications, confer degrees
  - ORS 351.0700(3)
- Board supervises course of instruction, determines institutional governance, and other tasks; delegable powers
  - ORS 351.070(4); ORS 351.200
- President is executive and governing officer of institution and president of faculty, subject to supervision of Board
  - ORS 352.004; 352.010

Presidents
— 7 Universities —