2011-12 Online Course/Program offerings:

- Over 800 credit courses are available online in over 80 subjects
- 13 undergraduate degree programs and 19 undergraduate minors
- 15 graduate programs (some hybrid)
- Partner with 10 OSU academic colleges
- Partner with nearly 500 faculty members annually

2011-12 Student Demographics (distance students):

- Approximately 60% of distance students are women
- Approximately 30% of distance students are Oregon residents
- Average age of distance students is 33
- Of the 11,298 students in Ecampus courses, 3,913 (35%) were distance students
- Of the 109,836 Ecampus credit hours, 55,434 (50%) were taken by distance students
- Distance students enrolled from all 50 states and from over 30 countries

Motivation for enrolling in online classes/programs:

- Stop outs – have started degree (frequently at OSU) but weren’t able to finish
- Working adults – can’t leave job to get degree and can't move to Corvallis
- Stay at home parents – want to be home with kids
- Preference is online learning
- On-campus course access issues

The above enrollment figures only include for-credit enrollment in transcript data. The Student Demographics “distance students” category excludes students primarily associated with the Corvallis, Bend, or La Grande campuses. 2011-12 data source: Data Warehouse on September 27, 2012 (BL).
